

EVIDENCE OR OPINION? (ANSWER KEY)

1. O Students were paying attention during the lesson.
2. E Raul states “Can you help me. I’m confused.”
3. O Your kids are making steady progress.
4. E Lesson plan states “review quadrilateral equations.”
5. E The students came into the class. 6 students were talking in the back of the room while you were introducing the lesson.
6. O Your classroom management techniques were evident.
7. O English Language Learners were neglected during the lesson.
8. E Seven of eight students in the group completed the assignment.
9. E This common core standard was on the board: Explain how an author develops the point of view of the narrator or speaker in a text.
10. O Teacher helps students to connect learning to their life experiences and cultural understanding.
11. E Teacher states “Could the equation we used to solve the hydraulics problem apply to this question?”
12. E Special Needs student chose a leveled reading book from the basket you gave him.
13. O There are positive interactions between students.
14. E Students were working in a group. One person from each group reported out to the entire class.
15. O The lesson has no relationship to the district’s stated curriculum.
16. E Teacher visited each group three times during a ten-minute period.
17. E The teacher told the students to put their hands down and pulled sticks out of a jar to call on kids.
18. O The lesson challenges students to think critically.
19. E Students cite an average of about six internet sources in their papers.
20. O The students do not listen to your instructions.

